DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The Affidavit filed on October 10, 2003 under 37 CFR 1.131 is sufficient to overcome the Kerns et al. U.S. 6,257,194 reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
   The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 3. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 20 recites the limitation "predetermined period" in line 1 of claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 20 had been previously amended to depend from claim 12. Applicant has returned dependency to claim 11. Therefore, claim 20 is once again rejected under second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 5. Claims 1-3, 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gospodar (US/4,090,481).

Art Unit: 3747

6. Gospodar discloses a controller (13) that upon closing of ignition switch (14) moves the throttle valve to the fully closed position (e.g. substantially closed). (col. 2, lines 41-68). It is inherent that switch 14 turns off the ignition as implied by it's name. During patent examination, the pending claims must be "given the broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification." Applicant always has the opportunity to amend the claims during prosecution and broad interpretation by the examiner reduces the possibility that the claim, once issued, will be interpreted more broadly than is justified. In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ 541, 550-51 (CCPA 1969) See also In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir. 1997) and In re Cortright, 165 F.3d 1353,1359, 49 USPQ2d 1464, 1468 (Fed. Cir. 1999)

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 6-14, 16-24 has been considered. The Examiner has concurred with applicant on all arguments of record. The above rejections are partially reiterated from Office Action dated September 30, 2002. Upon further consideration, the claim limitations of independent claim 11 are thought not to be anticipated by Gospodar as in Office Action dated September 30, 2002. However, there are no arguments towards to the anticipation of claims 1-3 and 6-10. The rejection to claim 4 was not reiterated because; Gospodar is not explicit in the control of fuel injection during shutdown.

Allowable Subject Matter

١

8. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

- 9. Claim 20 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
- 10. Claims 11-14, 16-19, 21-24 are allowed.
